Job Announcement

Bilingual Staff Attorney – Labor Trafficking – Yakima, Tri-Cities, or Wenatchee

NJP seeks applications from attorneys who have a strong interest in working with farmworker communities to lead our advocacy against labor trafficking in agriculture. Spanish fluency is required for this position, as is a demonstrated competence in working with diverse individuals and communities, including immigrants and persons of color. This full-time position can be based in Yakima, Tri-Cities, or Wenatchee, WA.

NJP offers a unique opportunity to join a mission driven organization serving the legal needs of low-income people and communities in Washington State. Northwest Justice Project (NJP) is a not-for-profit law firm with a mission of Combating Injustice • Strengthening Communities • Protecting Human Dignity. NJP secures justice for people in or near poverty through high quality legal advocacy that promotes the long-term well-being of low-income individuals, families and communities through legal representation, community partnerships, education and other advocacy.

Compensation is based upon years of experience, with an annual salary range of $64,751 to $121,022. We offer a comprehensive benefits package which includes 100% paid employee health premiums and significant premium shares for family members, as well as generous time off.

Please see Bilingual Staff Attorney – Labor Trafficking for more details.
